

What is a Direct Consolidation Loan?

Federal loans secured by the US Department of Education can be combined from one or more student loans into one new loan. Under this consolidated loan, borrowers will only have one lender and one monthly payment.